Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and elterative is fo. '. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal billous fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the maintail poleon. Head ache, indigestion, constipation, dissiness yield to Electric Bitters. Only Sfy cents per bottle at J. P. Byrou's drug sters. He has about 10 tens of Electric Bitters.
